LA CROSSE, WISCONSIN, SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 1912.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

On The Great White Way

NEAR-NEWS AND CHATTER FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

To the lady first correctly guessing the identity of the person of whom the following is a character sketch, and bringing a copy of this paper to the Tribune office, a cash prize of $1.00 will be given. The subject of the sketch is a prominent citizen of La Crosse. After winning one prize, a contestant will not be eligible to again compete for a period of three months.

Andy Thompson was the subject of last week's "Guess Who's Here" contest, the winner being Miss Grace Giesell.

GUESS WHO'S HERE

Not barring the politicians of the present political ascendancy he has probably been interviewed oftener than any other man in La Crosse. There's something substantial about him, a bigness that impresses without protruding. He's as auburn as autumn, with the stored up sunshine of many generations reflected from his coloring. Time was, during the old Spooner regime, when he was an important factor in the councils of the dominant party. He was, in a way, the Hitchcock of the local organization, and the "fatierr" as well. And it was out of this political stewardship that he grew to be the active agency in all those commendable civic bodies in which some commendable enterprise was to be financed. He had the ear and the confidence of local capital, and the way he was wont to insinuate his palm into the reluctant wallet was the wonder of the time. He has contributed much of the business intelligence responsible for the success of a great annual undertaking bearing the name of La Crosse, and in addition to that they send him to bat in almost every game in which the pennant is something important for the community. He's all business, although, like the old war horse, he just can't keep from snorting once in a while during the campaign, for he's the most regular regular who ever stood pat behind the breastworks of a lost cause, albeit he has that happy grace which permits some vanquished to smilingly shake hands with the victor and really mean both the handshake and the smile.

"Bach" Tells One

On "Tom" Carter Here's another one of those little stories "Bach" mailed us, unsigned, from somewhere in the Badlands: "You sure know Tom Carter, of Montana. Tom's a standpatter who stood pat in the United States senate until his job moved out from under him. All the same, Tom assays plenty to the ton in his state, and outside of being a politician for revenue only, he's alright. "About eleven years ago Tom, who's some alfalfa in the law business, defended a cowman for carving his initials in a sheep herder's cardiac membrane. The murderer represented himself as a man of property, but after his acquittal Tom found all he had was five forties of sage brush up in a country where water was so scarce nobody could afford it as a chaser. Tom grumbled, but finally took the land for his fee, and kept paying taxes on it until last April. "Then some sodbuster who'd been inveigled into buying a ranch in the desert, and who couldn't read or write, got a friend to write Tom a letter making him an offer of $400 for the four forties. Tom wrote back that he'd sell all five of the forties for $500. The rancher's friend wrote back that the rancher would only buy four. Then Tom wrote that he'd sell all five of the forties for $400, same price the fellow had offered for only four. Back comes a letter saying the rancher would pay $400 for the four forties, but would not pay $400 for all five; that he didn't want the other forty on a bet. "Well, Tom wrote him to come to Billings and close the deal, and after the papers were made out and the money paid over in the writing room of the hotel, Tom, who had showed me the correspondence, winked at me the wink of a man who has just put over a clever stunt. Then he took me into the bar, and as he stirred his highball he whispered: "Sh-h-h! I found that gazabo couldn't read, and when I drew the deed I slipped him all five of the forties."

Wacker Was Onto Morris Tuteur

And until his dying day the late John Wacker believed Morris Tuteur stole the oysters.

It happened when Harry Taggart was running the big barber shop that used to try to stare the Linker shop out of countenance. Morris had a small sack of fruit when he stepped into the shop that morning, and standing in his front door half a block down and opposite, Wacker saw the sack. He hadn't noticed it when Morris left his place ten minutes before, but that, confidentially, was because Morris didn't have it then.

"John Wacker's got some swell fried oysters for lunch today," said Morris, slipping into Charley Darling's chair. Taggart pricked up his ears, and in two and a half minutes was at Wacker's lunch counter, accepting every chance. When he satisfied his cravings, it occurred to him to tease Mr. Wacker by way of entertainment.

"Put me up a sack of them oysters to take home," said Mr. Taggart. "Ve wouldn't sold 'em," said Mr. Wacker. "Sell 'em? I want you to give 'em to me. I see Morris Tuteur with a whole bag full, an' he said you were giving 'em away."

Mr. Wacker stared. Then his face grew red and the veins in his neck began to swell. "Swine!" he shouted. "I vondered vat makes dem oysters so quick away. Preddy quizz he maybe gomes back for more. Den vach out!"

The next morning, when Morris dropped in, he was astounded to have his old friend let go a vituperative tongue upon him. "Ven you stuff yourself full und go oud, doud make anything out mit you, du geitz hals!"

Morris couldn't laugh it off, and if he thought the witnesses he brought to prove his paper bag contained fruit, and it was all a joke of Taggart's were gentile, he should have heard the old gentleman a week later.

"Keeping your eye on that fellow Tuteur?" asked Harry. "Alreaty he has been here, efery day mit lies, lies, nodding but lies, Mr. Taggart, aber dot makes me no difference. Mit oysters vat he can't eat he steals."

DOMESTIC LEFT FORTUNE

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, April 6.—Miss Mabel Curtis, a domestic, received information today that she has inherited an estate valued at $40,000 through the death of an uncle in Fort Reno, California.

HELP FOR CAIRO

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 6.—In response to a telegram from Mayor Parsons of Cairo the adjutant general today ordered 100 more army shelters sent there for the destitute flood victims.

ROBBERS FIGHT; TOWN IS SAVED

CHUNG KUNG, China, April 6.—A desperate battle between two robber hands resulting in the extermination of both, saved the town of Paohchow from pillage, according to news just received here. Two bands of about 500 advanced on the town from different directions. The townspeople negotiated with the first band to drive out the other and receive two-thirds of the loot of the city. The second robber band was exterminated. Only 150 of the first band were left when the battle was over, and the townspeople killed part of them in battle and captured and executed the remainder.

NOT NAVAL BASE BUT FISH RIGHTS

Japanese Premier Declares that Nipponese Activity in Magdalena Bay Is by Private Firm

NO POLITICAL ENDS SOUGHT

Declares that Tale of Naval Base Is Unfounded; All Sought Is a Fishing Ground

WASHINGTON, April 6.—What purports to be an explanation of Japan's activities in Mexico, prepared by the Marquis Saionji, premier of Japan, was issued today through the Japanese embassy here. While denying that Japan seeks or has sought concessions on Magdalena bay, he says that Japanese have secured enormous fishing concessions on the coast of Mexico proper, from the territory of Tepic to the state of Oaxaca. The statement follows:

The Statement
"Tokio, April 5, 1912.—So far as the Japanese government is concerned, there is positively no truth in the last Sunday's Tokio dispatch to the effect that negotiations between Mexico and Japan were concluded a few days ago for the establishment of a large Japanese settlement at Magdalena bay.

"On inquiry the following fact has been ascertained, which might have been responsible for the above erroneous report. Some time ago the agent of the Toya Tasha Kaish (Oriental Steamship company of Japan) obtained of his own accord from the Mexican government the fishing rights of the west coast of Mexico. Later the said agent transferred the acquired right to the Oriental Whaling company of Japan, and the Whaling company concluded with the Mexican government on the 17th of October, 1911, a contract by the terms of which the company has dispatched to Mexico one of its directors with fishing experts and fishermen, numbering about ten, who are now engaged in the investigation of the fishing district."

JUDGE DIES INSANE

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 6.—George W. Winfrey, 66, twice city judge here, died today at the Southern hospital for the insane, as a result of a three years' attack of paresis.

N. J. TAFT MEN STRONG

TRENTON, N. J., April 6.—The Taft campaign in New Jersey opened at the republican club here today with a gathering of republican regulars, eclipsing anything in years.

SENATOR BOB IS NEBRASKA IDOL

Everywhere He Speaks He Arouses Wild Enthusiasm Among His Audience

SAYS HE WILL NOT QUIT

Refuses to Be "Carried from the Field;" to Speak at Daughter's Meeting

OMAHA, Neb., April 6.—Senator La Follette spoke to three great depot audiences at Scribner, Hooper and West Point today, in spite of gloomy weather and intermittent rain. Farmers and their wives drove miles to hear the senator and he received ovations that vied with his Friday's receptions.

At Fremont a crowd waited thirty minutes, only to find that La Follette could not speak there until this afternoon. At every stop of the train the senator's appearance on the platform was greeted with prolong cheering.

At Omaha

Tonight the senator will return to Omaha over the same route he took today. He will speak at the Auditorium and indications are that he will be greeted with a monster crowd. At the same time that he is advocating his progressive policies to voters, his daughter, Miss Fola La Follette will be disseminating suffrage principles at the Y. W. C. A. The senator will make a few remarks to his daughter's audience before going to the Auditorium. Mrs. La Follette, who is accompanying her husband, will also speak at her daughter's gathering.

Cheer His Speech

Three thousand people who crowded the Lincoln auditorium from pit to dome listened to La Follette Friday night and cheered his assertion that this was the most critical period in American history and the time for the people to awaken and take the government of the country into their hands.

La Follette declared that the senators and congressmen in many sections did not serve the people but the moneyed powers.

Referring to his candidacy, La Follette declared that he was in the race to stay at no man's bidding.

"I will not keep still; I will not swerve an inch; I will go on fighting as long as I have breath," he said.

La Follette declared that his friends, when he was in their hands had declared him to be a disabled leader.

"They said to the people that I was a disabled engine and should be put on the sidetrack; that I was a disabled football captain and should be carried from the field."

Refuses to Quit

"I refuse to be carried from the field," he cried. "If I am disabled it will be because I was slugged by my own team."

La Follette said he had been called a dangerous man, and he said he was in the moneyed interests. In assailing the money powers La Follette earnestly declared he told only the conservative truth.

"The power I am fighting is too great for me to make mistakes," he said.

The entire audience applauded when the senator endorsed woman suffrage.

Drive Miles to Listen

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 6.—Senator La Follette's tour of Nebraska was attended by more enthusiasm than has marked the trip of other men in recent years, except, perhaps, W. J. Bryan. In every town crowds greeted Senator La Follette, many coming from other nearby towns and farmers driving miles over muddy roads to hear the great insurgent declare his principles in person.

HARRY CONKLIN REPORTED SAFE

State Department Receives Word of Safety of La Crosse Man and Party

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The state department today received news of the safety of Harry Conklin of La Crosse, Wis., manager of the Lluvia de Oro mines in Chihuahua and of the fifty other Americans with him.

The following telegram was received by The Tribune at 3 o'clock today from Congressman Esch:

"Washington, D. C., April 6. '12. "Daily Tribune, La Crosse. "State Department advise me Conklin and party are safe and well."

"JOHN J. ESCH."

ILLINOIS ORATORS' STAMPING GROUND

Big and Little Fry of All Parties Are Shouting from End of Trains Today; Fight Hot

BIG VOTE FOR BOB EXPECTED

La Follette Making No Noise in Campaign, but Expects Recognition at Primaries

CHICAGO, April 6.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt joined in the mad race of politicians through Illinois today. Three special trains bearing two presidential candidates and a cabinet officer today are criss-crossing the state, while the primary campaign has entered the stage of frenzied politics.

Besides the leaders riding in specials a score of minor spellbinders traveling on ordinary trains are hopping from one town to another in the desperate battle for presidential primary votes. Besides these a dozen candidates for the gubernatorial nomination are conducting strenuous statewide campaigns.

Keeps Ahead of T. R.

"Tama Jim" Wilson, secretary of agriculture, from the rear platform of a special train, took the field against his former chief again today. Wilson's special is running about half an hour ahead of the Roosevelt train.

Governor Woodrow Wilson resumed his speaking tour in central Illinois before returning to Chicago tonight to make four speeches.

Col. Roosevelt spent the northwestern corner today and addresses a big mass meeting at Springfield tonight. Ex-Governor N. J. Bachevalier of New Hampshire speaks today in the interests of President Taft's primary fight. Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan brings the Taft campaign to a close with a big meeting at the Auditorium here tonight.

Senator William J. Stone resumed the campaign for Champ Clark today. With ex-Governor Francis of Missouri, George Fred Williams of Massachusetts and several other speakers, he will address a series of meetings here and in nearby cities today.

Big Vote for Bob

La Follette campaigners are making but little noise because of the absence of their chief, but quiet organization work is being done and the are expecting a heavy vote for him, are expecting a heavy vote for him.

BODY OF UNKNOWN MAY BE HOPKINS

La Crosse People Think Unknown Found in River Is Body of Missing La Crosse Man

That the body of the unknown man found frozen in a cake of floating ice in the Mississippi near Brownsville Tuesday is that of Grant Hopkins, a former drayman of this city, is the belief of several La Crosse people who were acquainted with Hopkins.

Hopkins disappeared suddenly last fall a short time before the freezing of the river. The body of the man found in the ice was undoubtedly frozen in the ice during the entire winter.

A small slip of paper with all of the writing obliterated with the exception of the word "La Crosse," and thought to be a sale slip, was found upon the body of the dead man. From this it is evident that the unknown is a La Crosse man. Hopkins also had an injured hand and it is said that from an examination of the unknown it is believed that his hand was also injured.

A pocketbook containing six cents and a pipe with a gold band around the top were found upon the body but no other means of identification except the clothing were to be found. The body was buried at Brownsville Wednesday owing to the condition when found.

IOWA TEAM CHAMPION

IOWA CITY, April 6.—The Iowa City high school has again won the national championship for rifle shooting by defeating the Deering high school of Portland, Maine, 972 to 938, in a match to break a tie. Iowa City also broke the world's record of 970 held by the Baltimore Polytechnic.

SAVES FRIEND FROM PRISON

HAMMOND, Ind., April 6.—John Beson was saved from a prison sentence here today when his accuser, John Opinear, relented because of the friendship of boyhood. Beson was charged with attempting to brain Opinear with a bar of iron.

TO ARREST HAYWARD.

PASSAIC, N. J., April 6.—The police today refused either to confirm or deny the report that a warrant had been issued for the arrest of William D. Hayward, the labor leader, who has been advising the striking mill workers.

10 MILLION IS FLOOD DAMAGE

Levee at Hickman, Ky., Breaks and 100,000 Acres of Cotton Land Are Overflowed Today

MEMPHIS GIVES UP HOPE

Water Tops Levees, and Great Break Hourly Expected; Eastern Arkansas Under Water

HICKMAN, Ky., April 6.—One hundred thousand acres of cotton land worth $100 an acre is submerged today between the Hickman hills and Tiptonville, Tenn., as a result of the break in the big government levee south of here late yesterday. An additional $200,000 was tacked on to the flood damage in this district today as a result of the break. Up to date is estimated at nearly $10,000,000.

Wind the Cause

The break swept out the last remaining protection in this district. But for the fact that a heavy wind dashed the waves against the levee it is believed that the big dike would still be intact. The break was six miles below Hickman. The water had a fall of seven feet and soon tore a gap 150 yards wide.

The big work in hand now is the relief of 8,000 homeless people and the staving off of an epidemic. Aid from the outside is beginning to come in. Local rescuers have been exhausted for three days. Louisville sent $2,200 to be used in caring for the refugees. Many individual damage reports have been reported.

Memphis Despairs

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 6.—Levee officials and United States engineers have practically given up hope of saving the levee and the great St. Francis basin. They threw up their hands today in surrender when reports came in from a dozen different points of threatened breaks. It is now believed only a question of hours until the levee lets go in some weakened place and hundreds of acres in Tennessee and Mississippi will be inundated. The water is lapping the top in scores of places and in many instances is pouring over into the low country.

United States Engineer Smith today asked the chief of police to round up men to be sent to Bridge Junction, to stop a threatened break in the levee opposite Memphis. A break there might destroy the $5,000,000 bridge across the river.

The river stood at 44.0 today, but the crest of the rise is not in sight for several days. Forty-six or forty-seven feet is probable, unless breaks relieve the pressure. Practically the whole eastern part of Arkansas is partially covered by back water today. This section has been depopulated in the past few days.

Cairo Hungry

CAIRO, Ill., April 6.—The Mississippi river was at a stage of 54 feet here early today and still rising according to a report made by the weather bureau. The levees are still holding.

The stage of the river today is a rise of two-tenths of a foot over yesterday but the city is still believed to be safe although completely surrounded by water.

Practically the entire supply of fresh meat in Cairo has been exhausted and the food supply is now being doled out by the city officials. A commissary department has been established. Restaurants, boarding houses and private homes prepare the food and it is then delivered to the officials and distributed. More than 5,000 hams, 1,000 beefs and 1,000 pounds of coffee have been handled by the officials in supplying the workers on the levee and citizens with food.

SHARK CAMPAIGN HOT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 6.—Continuing a campaign against "Loan Shark" practices here, the police today arrested Marvin Bacon, manager of the C. T. Davis company on charges of usury preferred by Gustave Sligze, a customer.

Lawrence Murphy, a millionaire money broker was released from the city workhouse last night after serving a ninety day sentence following conviction on the same charge.

ITALIANS WATCH J. P. AND PICTURES

FLORENCE, April 6.—Because of a report that reached him that J. P. Morgan, the American financier now auto-mobiling through Italy, plans to annex some of the noted Italian art masterpieces despite the law prohibiting their exportation, the chief of police here has detailed several of his best men to keep close watch on the art galleries and see that nothing is removed without consent. Other men, it is reported, have been watching the noted American, although he has positively insisted ever since he came here that he was not in the market for art objects.

WRECK REVEALS A DOUBLE LIFE?

Burlington Fireman Lands in Hospital and Bad Matrimonial Tangle

TWO CLAIM TO BE HIS WIFE

Aurora Woman Causes Arrest of Couple in La Crosse; to Ask for Divorce

Mrs. Jones sat in the parlor a-sighing. For she just got word that Casey was dying. Hushup, you children, and stop your crying. You got another papa on the Salt Lake Line.

—Last verse of "Casey Jones."

Mrs. Casey Jones sighed and turned to another for comfort when the wreck made her a widow, but Mrs. Bert A. Bond of Aurora, Ill., who was nearly made a widow by a wreck on the Burlington near St. Paul about three weeks ago, decided that she would go to the side of her injured husband nurse him back to health. In applying to the railroad officials for a pass as the wife of an employee she discovered that her husband "had another" in La Crosse. She arrived in La Crosse today with her father, who is a business man in Aurora, swore out a warrant against her husband and Mrs. Bert A. Bond No. 2, or Louise Schilling, formerly employed at the Grand Crossing lunch room, and the two are under arrest today on a serious charge.

Wreck Causes Tangle

Bert Bond, who was a fireman on the Burlington, was badly injured in a wreck near St. Paul recently. His leg was broken and he received several other minor injuries when his engine was ditched by a broken rail. He landed in a hospital in St. Paul and in a matrimonial tangle which may prove nearly as serious as his physical damages. He was later taken to the La Crosse hospital in this city so that he could enjoy the company of his "wife." Outside of the north side woman who claims to be wife, the sheriff who called today has been his only visitor.

Although he has not appeared in their Aurora home for nearly a year according to the story of wife No. 1, when she heard of his being hurt in the wreck, she decided to go and see him. When she applied for a pass as the wife of an employee of the railroad, her application was referred to Bond by N. Frey, master mechanic. Bond, it is said, promptly denied that he had a wife in Aurora. He said that his only wife was the woman living with him on the north side. Learning of the situation, Mrs. Bond and her father came to La Crosse.

Two Under Arrest

She swore out warrants against her husband and Louise Schilling which were served by the sheriff today, one on the man in the hospital and the other on the woman on the north side. Both warrants are on a serious charge, which, if proven, may mean terms in the state prison.

A suspicion that there may be a third woman in the case was aroused by a letter which was recently received by Miss Rose Trestrail, manager of the Grand Crossing lunch room. The letter, which is from a woman in Burlington, Iowa, who signed herself as Grace Haas, asked for information in regard to the disposal of the personal property of Bert Bond, whom she understood to be killed in a wreck near St. Paul.

Denies Woman is Wife

Interviewed in the La Crosse hospital yesterday by a Tribune reporter, Bert Bond declared the La Crosse woman who was present during the interview was his only wife. She backed him up in everything he said, asserting that she had full faith in him and believed that he was telling the truth.

The "Aurora" Mrs. Bond, who is a dark eyed little woman about 25 years of age, says that she has been married to Bond for four years and that they have two children. She said that Bond had deserted her about a year ago and that "this is not the first time he had left her for other women." She is preparing to sue him for a divorce.

Bond is rapidly recovering from his injuries and will be arraigned before Judge John Brindley as soon as he is able to appear in court.

BIG EIGHT MEETS

CHICAGO, April 6.—Representatives of the universities composing the "Big Eight" conference gathered here today for a final discussion of the summer baseball problem and other questions pertaining to the amateur standing of college athletics.

AMERICANS GIVEN BAIL

LONDON, April 6.—Clark A. Muller and Alfred H. Motley, Jr., the two Americans awaiting extradition on a charge of having secured $100,000 from the American Lithograph company through false representations, were released on bail today.

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Cooler with probably showers tonight or Sunday.
For Wisconsin and Iowa: Cooler with probably showers tonight or Sunday.
For Minnesota: Unsettled weather with probably snow flurries tonight or Sunday; colder tonight and east portion Sunday.

Weather Conditions

A storm, central in northeastern Minnesota, extends southwestward into Texas and the weather is generally cloudy throughout this section with local rain. An area of high pressure has moved into the northern Rocky mountain region and snow is falling this morning in North Dakota, Montana and Wyoming and risen generally throughout the central and eastern states.

The low pressure will probably cause showers in this section tonight followed by generally fair and much cooler weather Sunday.

ISSUE BETWEEN BOB AND T.R.

Declares that His Anxiety to Have Wisconsin Man Withdraw for Health Does Not Matter

FRESNO, Cal., April 6.—Walter L. Houser today issued a long statement replying to statements that Senator La Follette has released Gifford Pinchot and other progressive leaders and declaring that La Follette had specifically refused to release Pinchot. Houser said in part:

"Whatever may or may not have been said concerning the withdrawal of Senator La Follette's candidacy, the final determination of the course he should pursue was made by La Follette himself and he personally notified Gifford Pinchot and others who are urging him to withdraw. When he consented to become a candidate, he served notice on Pinchot and the others that, once he had entered the race he would go through to the end, that there would be no turning back or surrender. Addressing Pinchot personally the senator said: 'You promised to go through with me, Gifford, and I will not release you from that promise. If you leave me now it will be on your own motion. I shall remain a candidate until the nomination is made at the Chicago convention. This is final.'

"The issue is not whether or not, in the hour of discouragement and perplexity due to the intrigue and treachery of those who had been supporting La Follette, I might have favored La Follette's withdrawal in order to preserve his health and strength. The issue is between the interests of this country, represented by men of the McKinley, Penrose, the people who are supporting Taft, and by men of the George Perkins, Frank Munsey, Dan Hanna type, who are supporting Roosevelt on the one side, and the rank and file of the American people on the other, to whom La Follette looks for support."

"Governor Johnson and his kind are shrewd enough to resort to every method known to crafty politicians to obscure the real issue, and in this case their attacks on me are made only to mislead the people and to divert their attentions from the real issue of the campaign."

Houser's statement was called forth by a statement by Johnson yesterday in which he declared Houser had released the Pinchots and McCormick.

SWEET SOUNDS A MYSTERY

Remarkable Hindu Musical Instrument Puzzles Those Who Hear it for the First Time.

The Hindus have a number of musical instruments for which great antiquity is claimed. Of these there is one that is very curious, not so much by reason of its form or structure, but because of the fact that it is played in a very peculiar manner. It is not a stringed instrument, it is not a wind instrument, and it is not an instrument of percussion. It consists of two small silver trumpets with a very delicate apparatus within.

When the natives play upon this instrument they invariably excite the greatest wonder in the foreigner, who is perplexed to determine how the player produces the sounds, for he does not place the instrument to his lips, but adjusts it to his neck. Foreigners have thought that a player of such an instrument must be a ventriloquist, employing the trumpets to convey a false impression.

It appears, however, that the variations of tone are produced by the variation in the quantity of air propelled through the instrument by the pulsations of the neck.

Nothing could be more curious, it is said, than to witness a performance upon this instrument and to hear the soft, sweet, musical sounds that emanate from the silver trumpets.—Harper's Weekly.

SPOTLIGHTS

(Rochester, Minn., Daily Bulletin.)

True to his advertisement "Du Skall Laff," Ole Olson, Jr., kept a packed house at the Metropolitan in a constant roar of laughter for two hours. Al E. Markham, the Swede comedian, is the best ever appeared on the Metropolitan stage. Mr. Reid has Mr. Markham & Co. booked for the same play four nights.

La Crosse theater tomorrow, matinee and night.

The latest of musical comedies, the "Heart Breakers," will be the next attraction at the La Crosse theater on Sunday, April 21, matinee and night. This tuneful comedy is under the management of Mort H. Singer, who will introduce a new star in the person of George Damewell, who was last season seen here as the Prince in the "Merry Widow." The "Heart Breakers" is the effort of Adams and Hough and they have woven a story around a band of young men who agree to try to break all the young women's hearts that they can. The leader of them is known as the "master," and in trying to do this with the girl, Miss Ruth Peebles, he falls in love with her and foregoes all his vows and the band has to break up. Manager Singer has surrounded Mr. Damewell with an excellent cast, a large singing and dancing chorus, and a costly production. There are a number of song hits.

ALMOST FRANTIC WITH ECZEMA ON HANDS

Began with Itching. Spread Fast. Fingers Fairly Bled. Cried Night and Day. Tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and Was Entirely Cured.

"Eight years ago I got eczema all over my hands. My fingers fairly bled and it itched until it almost drove me frantic. The eruption began with itching around the skin of the fingers and spread all over the left side of my chest. A fine doctor treated the trouble two weeks, but did me no good. I cried night and day. Then I decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment, but without much change the second day, and so on until I was entirely cured. The Cuticura Soap we have always kept in our home, and we decided after that lesson that it is a cheap soap in price and the very best in quality. My husband will use no other soap in his shaving mug."

"I have always used Cuticura Soap and no other for my baby, and he has never had a sore of any kind. He does not even chafe at most babies do. I feel that it is all owing to Cuticura Soap. When five months old won a prize in a baby contest. It makes my heart ache to go into so many homes and see a sweet faced baby with the whole top of its head a solid mass of scurf, caused by the use of poor soap. I always recommend Cuticura, and nine times out of ten the next time I see the mother she says 'Oh! I am so glad you told me of Cuticura.'" (Signed) Mrs. C. A. Selby, Redondo Beach, Cal., Jan. 15, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are for sale throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each together with 32-p. booklet on the care and treatment of the skin and scalp will be mailed free, on application. PERNICIOUS POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN SOUTH

Theodore Roosevelt has no right to complain of the high handed use of patronage to control the southern delegation for Mr. Taft on the ground that it was not to have been expected or that it lacked precedent. Colonel Roosevelt's man Hitchcock did a nice job of controlling those delegations for Mr. Taft about four years ago, although it must be said to his credit that he put it across without such flagrantly unethical, if not illegal means as those now employed in behalf of the president.

The fact is that this party shame has been perpetrated for years. As Collier's puts it, "The republican southern delegate has been the scandal of American politics since the Civil war. He has decided most of the republican presidential nominations since 1870, and in four cases out of five he has brazenly taken his pay, either in cash or in patronage. It is fair to say that the outright use of cash is no longer common. But President Taft and his managers are today trading offices and promises of office for votes in the national convention. Moreover, they are using the agents of the post office department to intimidate postmasters into giving aid to the Taft campaign."

This is not more an injustice to Roosevelt than it is to Cummins or La Follette, either of whom has much right to contend for these delegates as has the president or the ex-president.

However, the shocking fact remains that the thing is being done, openly and brazenly. P. D. Parker is the president's "referee" or boss, for the state of Alabama, and it is through him in particular that postmasters are being whipped into line for the present executive. The method used is to complain of inefficiency on the part of any postmaster who dares to swerve from his allegiance to Taft. Inspectors are sent out and the threat of dismissal is held over him, with always the contingency that if he will "be good" he can continue to draw his salary.

Following is an advertisement that was published in three leading Texas papers, through which Mr. Taft's manager frankly puts forward political patronage as the weapon with which he will make federal office holders support the president:

"To Republican Federal Officeholders in Texas:

"The State Chairman has notified you officially to send him money to defeat President Taft, under whom you hold a commission, and to file your allegiance to him within ten days. This is to notify you that the State Chairman has now no influence in Washington, and will not have if re-elected, after President Taft's triumphant re-election.

"In some other Southern States where complaint was made, and where conditions were similar to those in Texas, the President had the Republicans of the State meet in conference and select a committee to make recommendations as to the patronage, and you can rest assured that loyal Taft Republicans cannot be slaughtered by the State Chairman.

"The recommendation of Taft Republicans will control the Texas situation in the matter of patronage, and not the recommendation of those engaged in discrediting one of the best Presidents the country has ever had, and who are, by their disloyalty, endangering Republican success nationally.

"H. F. MacGREGOR, "Taft Texas Campaign Manager," "Houston, Tex., March 15, 1912."

A characteristic example of administration coercion in the south is the case of George R. Lewis, postmaster of Bessemer, Ala. Two days after Lewis participated in a meeting that endorsed Roosevelt for president, he was called upon by a postoffice inspector and ordered to answer charges of "pernicious political activity." As Lewis said in reply to the postoffice department, "You shut your eyes to the most flagrant examples of 'pernicious political activity' in behalf of President Taft, while you direct the searchlight of your investigations along these lines only against a few postmasters who have expressed a preference for Roosevelt."

These are a few of the cases which led Senator Bristow to propose a congressional investigation. Favorable report upon his resolution is now assured, and we may look for some illuminating evidence regarding the political activities of the national administration in the south.

Joe Davies no doubt feels considerable confidence in the little old state of Wisconsin, now that it has shown the "fair minded democrat" to be as discriminating in his own party councils as he is in his attitude toward republican candidates. By the way, several months ago we referred to Mr. Davies as a reactionary. It was one of those casual displays of carelessness men commit upon the acceptance of faulty information. It had been explained to us by Milwaukee authority that, while force of circumstances had landed Mr. Davies in the Bryan camp four years ago, he was a "stalwart" between the lines. Frankly, Mr. Davies is proving himself a progressive from lid to boots, right in the class with Billy and A. C. Wolfe, John C. Burns, Doherty, Skaar, Knehn, Schubert and Jim Murray. From now on we'll always have the right tag on Joe Davies.

The "big stick" having appeared in the contest, the campaign now promises to rival the Donnybrook fair.

How easy it would have been to overcome that 111 votes by which the free bridge was lost had twenty other citizens joined the ranks of the Flying Squadron, Feiber, Toeller and Taggart!

Winter is finished and spring is here! True, I can see the meadow Gray and sober, and very serene, Chill with the drifting shadow. But guess what visitor fair I met Deep in the thick of the wood? Dear little sister Violet, Wearing a purple hood!

Winter is dead and spring is born! What if a few flakes fall? What if the bare fields stretch forlorn?

The aged motor car was somehow always getting out of repair, and it usually indulged in a little breakdown about once a week, in order to vary an otherwise monotonous existence.

Slowly it snorted its way into the broad stream of traffic, when there was a sudden whirring of wheels, a loud snap, and the weary and worn framework came to a stop.

"Look here," said the policeman to the driver, "this kind of thing is occurring too often. Let's see, what's your number? Yes, 15881!"

"Go on!" said the precocious youth who was in charge of the cart immediately behind. "That ain't its number. That's the year it was built."

Prof. Robert Herrick, discussing the "double entendre" at the University of Chicago, cited an example of this figure from the Chicago law courts.

"There is a court crier," he said, "who failed to turn up at the usual hour one morning. He sent the judge, instead, a note, and this note contained a very remarkable 'double entendre.' It read:

"Dear Judge—My wife's mother died last evening. Hence I will be unable to cry today."

A Chicago broker was praising the wit of Thomas Fortune Ryan.

"Mr. Ryan and a Socialist once engaged in a war of wits at the Union Club in New York over their luncheon," the broker said. "Mr. Ryan got the best of it."

"The worst Socialist lost his temper a little at the end, and as he rose to go he sneered:

"They told me in Ireland once that all the Ryans were rogues."

"It may well be," said Mr. Ryan, smiling, "that all the Ryans are rogues; but it is equally true that all the rogues are not Ryans."

"I beg pardon," said the reporter, "but are you Mr. Spudde, the Potato King?"

"Yes, but I don't like that term," replied the muffled magnate, testily. "Oil kings and cattle kings and the like are so common. Call me the potatoentate."

Lucky the Days Are Getting Longer

News Item: In some of the larger cities it is reported that the ballots are so long owing to the great number of candidates that voting and counting the votes will be very slow.

POPULAR SONG FOR THE GIRLS

Peculiar New Ballad which Is the Rage in Various States

There is a new song now popular in the East which appears to have been written solely for those of the fair sex with classical tastes. It has a very peculiar melody, and, although the words are nothing extraordinary, the melody seems to fascinate the ear. The song was written by Alfred Solman, the author of a great many quaint love lays, and bears the simple title of "Mine." Here are a few bars, clipped from a sheet of the music, just received:

The copyright of "Mine" was bought last week by Joseph Morris, a Philadelphia man, for $15,000, the largest sum ever paid for a piece of music. Still, at a dime a copy, wholesale, he says he expects to double his risky outlay. Two things are in the song's favor: It contains all sorts of odd harmonies to develop the voice, and it is arranged in four different keys. The few copies that reached La Crosse yesterday were eagerly seized by the fair sex.

Idiosyncrasy Too Much of Password
Senator Bacon of Georgia received a call from a constituent whom he piloted around the capitol for a while and then gave a seat in the senate gallery.

The proceedings were a little tame that afternoon and, when the Georgian found himself falling asleep, he decided to go out and walk around. At the exit he told the gallery keeper that he had been brought in by Senator Bacon and might wish to return.

"My name is Swate," he said. "I guess you will remember me."

"I may not be here when you return," said the door keeper, "so I had better give you the password."

"What is the word?" asked the Georgian.

"Idiosyncrasy."

"What?"

"Idiosyncrasy."

"I guess I'll stay in," said Swate. —St. Louis Republic.

KENOSHA APPOINTS NEW HEALTH BOARD
KENOSHA, Wis., April 6.—The new kenosha board of health was organized on Thursday with Dr. G. Windesheim as chairman. The board at once took charge of the scarlet fever situation in Kenosha and will use vigorous methods to stamp out the epidemic. There has been great improvement in the city in the last few days and it is now declared that there are but thirty cases in the city. No new cases have been reported since Monday and no deaths have occurred in the last ten days.

CHAPTER XXI.

A Bottle of Wine.

George stood irresolutely upon the steps. A new keyhole! What the deuce did the agent mean putting a new keyhole in the door without notifying him? As the caretaker never entered that door, it was all the agent's fault. There was no area-way in front, but between George's house and the next there was a court eight feet in width, running to the dividing wall between the bank property and his own. A grilled gate protected this court. George had a key. The gate opened readily enough. His intention was to enter by the basement door. But he suddenly paused. To his amazement he saw just below the library curtain a thin measure of light. Light! Some one in the house! He did the most sensible thing possible; he stood still till the shock left him. Some one in the house, some one who had no earthly or heavenly business there! Near the window stood a tubbed bay-tree. Cautiously he mounted this, holding the ledge of the window with his fingers. That he did not instantly topple over with a great noise was due to the fact that he was temporarily paralyzed.

Here was the end of the puzzle. The riddle of the United Romance and Adventure Company was solved. At last he understood why Mrs. Chedsoye had sought him, why Rynne had kidnapped him. But for his continuing his journey upon the German Lloyd boat, he would have missed being a spectator (already an innocent contributor) to one of the most daring and ingenious bank robberies known in the pages of metropolitan crime. There was Mrs. Chedsoye, intrusively handsome as ever; there was her rascally card-sharper brother, that ingrate who called himself Rynne, and three unknown men. The impudence of it; the damnable insolence of it! And there they were, toasting their success in a brace of his own vintage champagne! But the wine was, after all, inconsequential. It was what he saw upon the floor that caught him by the throat. His knees weakened, but he held on grimly to his perch.

White bags of gold, soiled bags of gold, and neat packets of green and yellow notes; riches! Twenty bags and as many packets of currency; a million, not a penny under that! George was seized with a horrible desire to yell with laughter. He felt the cacklings bubble in his throat. He swallowed violently and gnawed his lips. They had got into his house under false pretenses and had tunneled back into the Merchant-Mechanic Bank, of which Horace's brother was president and in which he, George P. A. Jones, always carried a large private balance. It was the joke of the century.

As quietly as he possibly could, he stepped down from his uncertain perch. In the fine fury that followed his amazement, his one thought was to summon the police at once, to confront the wretches in their villainy; but once outside in the street, he cooled. Instantly he saw the trial in court. Fortune as witness against her own mother. That was horrible and not to be thought of. But what should he do? He was shaken to his soul. The stupendous audacity of such a plan! To have worked out every detail, down to the altering of the keyhole to prevent surprise. He saw the automobiles. They were leaving that night. If he acted at all, it must be within an hour; in less than that time they would be loading the cars. His mind began to rid itself of its confusion. Without the aid of the police; and presently he saw the way to do it.

He was off at a dog-trot, upon the balls of his feet, silently. Within five minutes he was mounting the steps to the Mortimer home, and in another minute was inside. The others saw directly that something serious had happened.

"What's the trouble, George?"

George sat down. Not during those early days of the journey across the desert had he felt so pitifully weak and inefficient.

Fortune paced the room, her arms folded tightly across her breast. Strange, there was neither fear nor pain in her heart, only a wild wrath.

When Mortimer returned from the telephone, saying that Wadsworth would be right over, he asked George to explain fully what was going on. It was rather a long story. George managed to get through it with a coherency understandable, but no more. Mrs. Mortimer put her motherly arms about the girl, but she found no pliancy. There was no resistance, but there was that stiffness peculiar to felines when picked up under protest. And House vanished?" asked Mortimer. "Have you got a brace of revolvers?" said George quietly.

"Two automatics. But..."

"Give them to me," less evenly in tone. "Will you call up Arthur Wadsworth, president of the Merchant-Mechanic Bank?"

"The bank?"

"Yes, the bank. You know, it is just in the rear of my house."

Here Fortune came forward. All the bright color was gone from her cheeks; the old mask of despair had re-formed. She needed no further enlightenment.

"Are you going back there?" she asked.

"Yes, dear; I must. Mr. Mortimer will go with me."

"And I?"

"No, heart o' mine; you've got to stay here."

"If you do not take me with you, you will not find me here when you return."

"My child," began Mortimer soothingly, "you must not talk like that. There will be danger."

"Then notify the police, and let the danger rest upon their shoulders," she said, her jaws set squarely.

"I can't call in the police," replied George, miserably.

"Shall I tell you why?"

"Dearest, can't you understand that it is you I am thinking of?"

"I am determined. If I do not go with you, you shall never see me again. My mother is there!"

Tragedy! Mrs. Mortimer stretched out a hand, but the girl did not see it. Her mother; her own flesh and blood! Oh, the poor child!

"Come, then," said George, in despair. "But you are hurting me, Fortune."

"Forgive me, but I must go with you. I must!"

"Get me the revolvers, Mr. Mortimer. Will you please telephonic him? I'm afraid I couldn't talk steadily enough. Explain nothing save that it concerns his bank."

George sat down. Not during those early days of the journey across the desert had he felt so pitifully weak and inefficient.

Fortune paced the room, her arms folded tightly across her breast. Strange, there was neither fear nor pain in her heart, only a wild wrath.

When Mortimer returned from the telephone, saying that Wadsworth would be right over, he asked George to explain fully what was going on. It was rather a long story. George managed to get through it with a coherency understandable, but no more. Mrs. Mortimer put her motherly arms about the girl, but she found no pliancy. There was no resistance, but there was that stiffness peculiar to felines when picked up under protest. And

"Have you got a brace of revolvers?" said George quietly.

"Two automatics. But..."

"Give them to me," less evenly in tone. "Will you call up Arthur Wadsworth, president of the Merchant-Mechanic Bank?"

"The bank?"

"Yes, the bank. You know, it is just in the rear of my house."

Here Fortune came forward. All the bright color was gone from her cheeks; the old mask of despair had re-formed. She needed no further enlightenment.

"Are you going back there?" she asked.

"Yes, dear; I must. Mr. Mortimer will go with me."

"And I?"

"No, heart o' mine; you've got to stay here."

"If you do not take me with you, you will not find me here when you return."

A HEAD THAT WEIGHED 10 POUNDS

It Would Make You Faint, Too, As It Did This Lady. But It Grew Lighter and Now She Can Walk Miles

Keechi, Texas.—"I was so weak, I could hardly walk," writes Mrs. Jennie Bell, of Keechi.

"I had not enough strength, to lift my baby from the bed, and my head felt as if it weighed 10 pounds.

This made me faint, and I thought I could not live.

I was ready to give up at any time.

I went to see my mother, who gave me some medicine. It did me no good, and I went back home.

Mother came too, and persuaded me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, as a last resort. So I sent to the store and got me a bottle.

Now, I am well and can walk miles and carry baby with me all the way."

Do you suffer from weakness? Does your head feel heavy? Do you want to give up?

If you do, you should heed the moral of this story—a true story from life.

Thousands of women suffer when they shouldn't.

They shouldn't suffer, when there is a remedy waiting for them, on every druggist's shelf, ready to relieve their troubles,—Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Don't let Cardui wait any longer.

Studebaker Flanders 5 Passenger Touring Car, 3 speeds ahead and reverse. Complete with top, windshield and speedometer, $870.00.

What will your car cost you—after you buy it?

Did you ever think of that?

Service is a big item in modern automobile buying.

What Kind of a Guarantee Have You Got?

Some manufacturers guarantee "for life." That's like a health insurance which expires when you're sick. It sounds pretty and is worth nothing.

The Studebaker guarantee is full and complete. It stands for a year. You can understand that; you can bank on it. Remember, too, that a year covers the hardest part of a car's life. By the second year you know how to treat it. And with a Studebaker car its life is practically a matter of the care you give it. Take care of it and no limit can be named to its endurance.

What Will Parts Cost You?

We mention this gently because with many of our competitors it is a tender point. Their theory too often is, HOLD UP THE OWNER. So it is common knowledge that it costs three or four times as much to buy most cars part by part as it would to buy them assembled. But every Studebaker part is listed at its proportionate cost in a complete car plus but a small percentage for handling. Our Parts Price Lists convince the prospective owner and a Studebaker buyer is assured of continual fair dealing. Call and let us show you one of them.

Finally, How Quickly Can You Get New Parts?

Suppose they had to come a few hundreds or thousands of miles while your car lay idle. You, of course, would have to wait. Or suppose you have an "assembled" car where the important parts, such as motor, clutch, transmission, axles, etc., are made by several "parts makers" scattered over the country. Where would you be in case any one of these small concerns quit business as they are doing every day? STUDEBAKER cars are manufactured complete in the largest and most up-to-date automobile factory in the world. And the result is that with 36 branch houses and over 2,000 dealers you can get any part no matter where you are in less than 48 hours.

That name STUDEBAKER tells the whole story. It stands for square dealing. Rely on it. Your father did; so can you.

Think this over and call on us before you buy.

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia go five minutes after taking Pape's Diapepsin

•Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can.
There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal grip-ing. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

COMMISSION SPLITS ON LABOR QUESTION

SEATTLE, Wash., April 6.—Inter-

Workers of the World shifted yesterday from British Columbia, where 6-000 railroad laborers are on strike, to southwestern Washington, where 1,000 sawmill workers are out and where the situation has been complicated by a split in the municipal commission of Hoquiam. The mayor, Rev. Harry Ferguson, is siding with the industrial workers in their demands that they be permitted to remain in town unmolested while conducting the strike. The other two commissioners are backing the mill owners and the citizens' committee in their efforts to drive the men from the district.

The striking mill men are greatly encouraged by the result of the city election last Tuesday in Aberdeen when two socialist aldermen were chosen. The socialists polled nearly 700 votes or near one-third of the total cast.

plate. Those present were Dorothy Ann Ogden, John Ogden, Elizabeth Beans, Margaret Beans, Edward Dunham, Louise Dunham, Karl Kurtenacker, Oscar John Hulberg and Louise Congdon. The little folks were accompanied by their mothers who enjoyed the affair fully as much as did the children.

ADMIT GIRL'S MURDER

STEPMOTHER AND BROTHER
WHO BROKE GIRL'S NECK, GET TERMS IN THE PENITENTIARY

OROVILLE, Cal., April 6.—Mrs.
Emma Rumbull, who confessed that she and her brother, Arthur Lewis, killed her stepdaughter last July by breaking her neck, will serve two years in the penitentiary. She and Lewis were convicted of manslaughter and Lewis got a ten year sentence.

The woman admitted she had bound the stepdaughter, Helen Rumbull, to joists in an attic where the temperature was 120 degrees, and that she died there. It was shown later, however, that the girl's neck was broken in two places, and that Lewis had boasted of the strength of his hands, having asserted that he could break the neck of a steer in just the same manner as the girl's neck was broken.

The door of adversity has "Push" emblazoned on it.

USE CAN OPENER TO ESCAPE JAIL

In escaping from the Payne county jail at Stillwater, Okla., L. L. Smith

IF YOUR CHILD NEEDS A PHYSIC

If cross, feverish, tongue coated, give "Syrup of Figs" to clean the stomach, liver and bowels

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's insides, the stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are clogged up with putrifying waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When your child is listless, drooping, pale, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily or is cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well,
happy and smiling child again
shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed. A little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

One-Man Structure.

The biggest one-man structure in England is St. Vitus church, near Coventry. James Green, a native of that city, not only worked the stones used in it, but with the help of a single laborer, placed them all in position, and, in fact, constructed the whole of it, from foundation to turrets. How long it took him to accomplish this feat is not clear. He is said to have been engaged on the task for 40 years, but the interval which elapsed between the demolition of the old church and the opening of the present one was only seven years. At all events, Green's "record," like many others in connection with building, will, we may be sure, stand for generations.—

A "CURE"? FOR BALDNESS

The above expression is one which is used frequently in connection with hair preparations. Just exactly what is meant by it in each instance is a question. Baldness is not a disease and hence, does not permit of a cure.
It is a result invariably to be traced to the dandruff germ and if the condition has become chronic, that is, if there is complete atrophy of the hair follicles, a "cure" is absolutely impossible.

Approaching baldness, seen in falling hair, may always be checked and if the hair follicles are not atrophied the hair may be induced again to grow.

This is accomplished by regular applications of Newbro's Herpicide which cleanses the scalp and kills the dandruff germ. The destruction of the germ does away with the accumulations of scurf skin and thus eliminates the most common enemy to beautiful hair.

Soft, glossy, fluffy hair cannot grow on a scalp infested with dandruff any more than a delicate plant can grow on an ash heap. The scalp must be kept clear and free from dandruff. The best remedy for doing this is Newbro's Herpicide which receives the highest endorsements from professional men, the stage and the best people everywhere.

•Herpicide is gold and guaranteed in one dollar size bottles by all druggists. Application obtained at all first-class barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

Address The Herpicide Co., Dept.
R., Detroit, Mich., enclosing 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet. Hoeschler Bros., Special

TRY TWICE TO BLOW BRIDGE

International Bridge at El Paso Is Dynamited Twice by Juarez Federals

EL PASO, Texas, April 6.—Following two attempts during the night to blow up the Mexico Northwestern railroad bridge between Juarez and El Paso, American soldiers have been posted in the center of the international bridges connecting the two cities and during the night their orders were to shoot prowlers after challenge to stop had been disregarded.

Two heavy charges of blasting powder were exploded under the railroad bridge on the Mexican side, damaging, but not destroying, it. Immediately following the discharge, cries of "Viva Madero" were heard. Juarez authorities refused to allow street cars from El Paso to enter the town after the explosion.

Advices today declare that following the taking of Parral by the rebels yesterday morning, a campaign of looting was started by some of the rebel soldiers, which was stopped by General Salazar, who executed two of the looters.

STREET CAR TO RUN UNTIL 11:30

Valier Offers Compromise to Houska's Proposed 12 O'clock Ordinance

WILL CONSULT WITH THE MEN

Conductors and Motormen to Be Called Into Conference Soon

Peter Valier, general manager of the La Crosse City Railway company offered as a compromise to the proposed ordinance, providing for street car traffic until 12 p. m., a proposition whereby the service would be continued until 11:30 p. m., at the meeting of the council committee on railroads, streets and alleys held at the city hall last night. A proviso, whereby the motormen and conductors must approve of this agreement, before it goes into effect, was added to the offer.

As the result of a petition signed by fifty citizens asking that the service of the street car company be prolonged until 12 o'clock, Alderman J. Houska recently introduced a resolution for the adoption of an ordinance ordering the change of the schedule.

The matter was referred to the committee on railroads, streets and alleys and was taken up at last night's meeting. Peter Valier explained that the change of schedule as proposed in the ordinance would increase the hours of the conductors and motormen to such an extent that trouble would probably arise.

He expressed himself as willing to compromise if he could obtain the ratification of the men to this proposition and said he would give an answer in a short time. He will consult the employees of the company on the proposition within a few days.

The members of the council committee are satisfied with the proposed change of the schedule and if negotiations are brought to a satisfactory close, the recommendation of the adoption of this proposition will probably be made at the next meeting of the council. By this arrangement, street cars will leave Fourth and Main streets for all parts of the city at 11:30 o'clock every night of the week.

MINORITY STILL FAVORS STRIKE

English Miners' Union Is Still Divided, Although a Third of Men Are at Work

LONDON, April 6.—The miners' federation following a lengthy session today officially declared off the great coal strike and ordered the men to return to work immediately.

LONDON, April 6.—At the special meeting of the miners' federation held today to decide whether it would approve the action of the executive committee in recommending that the coal strike be called off before a two days vote. Every leader of prominence favored accepting what has been termed "peace with honor" while a large minority of the delegates, made up chiefly of the members from the north, was threatening to secede if the strike was not continued.

The reason assigned by the malcontents was that they would get much better conditions from the district boards appointed under the minimum scale law if they were still out than they could expect if they went back to the pits. Because of the desire to prevent an open rupture the leaders went to extremes as to conciliate the war party. Conferences were held and several new plans suggested as a way out of the muddle.

As usual the meeting was held behind closed doors and all information of what was transpiring was withheld. It was admitted that the reports received at headquarters show that more than one-third of the miners of the country are already back at work having accepted the recommendation made by the executive committee on Wednesday as authority. None of these men would come out on a new strike order, it was said, even though the war party could get control.

MAJESTIC THEATER IS TO BE SCENE OF CLASSICAL CONCERT ON EASTER SUNDAY

An innovation that will be at the same time a treat to the music lovers of the city will be seen at the Majestic theater tomorrow afternoon and evening, when Andre's 25-piece orchestra, composed of the pick of local talent, will deliver a program of classical selections. The orchestra, which is composed of members of practically all the better musical organizations in the city, has been practicing for several weeks, and has reached a condition that musical critics declare is close to ideal. The program includes numbers from most of the noted European and American composers. Miss Anna Ahren, Winona, will sing two numbers.

CHINESE NATION NEEDS THE CASH

Yuan Demands Money to Pay Boxer Indemnity; Fears Jap and Russian Grabs

PEKIN, April 6.—The financing of the new Chinese republic is causing President Yuan Shi Kai more than a little trouble and today he sent a peremptory note to the heads of the various provinces demanding money to pay the boxer indemnity several months overdue. For over a month now Yuan has been sending round robin notes to the provincial officials without result.

Unless the boxer indemnity is speedily paid, Yuan is afraid of complication with the various powers to whom money is due. This he is desperately anxious to avoid, they afford an opportunity for Russia and Japan to make further grabs in Mongolia and Manchuria respectively. The local authorities, failing to see the president's viewpoint, find the money hard to raise and they have interposed all sorts of objections. Yuan shows signs of losing his patience and his last note, it is understood, without making any threats, made it clear that unless the money is collected shortly, it will come out of the provincial officials.

It is believed that the officials will recognize the tone of the note and furnish the funds. While there is some complaint that Yuan is assuming a decidedly peremptory tone for a mere "president" the republican leaders recognize the urgent nature of the situation and generally endorse his stand.

ROGERS' FUNERAL MONDAY

The funeral of George Rogers, who died yesterday morning, will be held at two o'clock Monday afternoon from the residence, 439 South Third street. Rev. Longbrake will preach the funeral sermon and the Wilson Colwell Post will attend the services. Burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

SIX ARE ELIGIBLE FOR APPOINTMENTS

Standings in the state civil service examination for stenographers, which was held in La Crosse Feb. 24, show that six of those who took the test received a passing mark and are on the eligible list for appointments. Those from La Crosse who passed the examination are Miss Lucy M. Bauman, Miss Jennie M. Schick and George E. Wuensch, who are eligible for class C positions, and Miss Maud Van Loon, Miss Gladys Huntley and Eugene Simon, who are eligible for class D positions.

BOYD WILL TELL OF PASSION PLAY

The story of the Passion Play as presented at Oberammergau by an eye witness of the play will be the feature of the meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon. Mr. S. A. Boyd, the association's physical director, who traveled in Europe during the summer of 1910, was present at the presentation of this wonderful tragedy. Mr. Boyd is an interesting speaker and those who can come to this meeting tomorrow should avail themselves of this opportunity. The service begins promptly at 3:30 and is open to all men and older boys.

EASTER SERVICE AT THE Y. W. C. A.

A special Easter service is to be held at the Young Women's Christian association tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, at which Miss Clement, physical director, is to lead. Special music has been prepared for the occasion. This early morning service will take the place of the regular vesper service held at the association every Sunday morning.

The gymnasium bible class, which usually meets after the vesper service, will meet at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Chicago Grain Letter

CHICAGO, April 6.—Crop damage claims coming in increasing numbers the strength in the corn market and further covering by belated and stubborn shorts resulted in a sharp advance in wheat prices today. The unfavorable crop reports come mainly from the soft winter wheat sections east of the Missouri river. Corn futures again made new high records for the crop year today. The buying has been by confident leading longs and offerings are light. The cash demand is insignificant.

Oats trading was heavy in the late months and large increases were scored. Many traders are transferring their holdings to distant futures.

Provisions recovered some of yesterday's losses. Offerings were light and the market was rather narrow.

STEAMER JAP IS FIRST ON RIVER

The first steamer seen on the upper Mississippi this year was the steamer Jap, which left its winter quarters on the Black river near the North side elevators this morning and steamed down to the levee front. A few hours later it was taken back to its landing place, Judge E. C. Higbee, owner of the boat, had intended to make a trip to Wabasha today, but later decided to postpone the trip. Albert Wilcox is acting as captain of the Jap.

Weak Heart

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alterative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics nor alcohol.

The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Collinsonia Canadensis), Bloodroot (Sanguinaria Canadensis), Golden Seal root (Hydrastis Canadensis), Queen's root (Silene Sylvestris), Black Cherry bark (Prunus Virginiana), Mandrake root (Podophyllum Peltatum), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no druggist could imitate.

This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Stick to this safe and sane remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you half as much good.

SHE QUIT COFFEE

And Much Good Came From It.

It is hard to believe that coffee will put a person in such a condition as it did a woman of Apple Creek, O. She tells her own story. "I did not believe coffee caused my trouble, and frequently said I liked it so well I would not quit drinking it, even if it took my life, but I was a miserable sufferer from heart trouble and nervous prostration for four years. "I was scarcely able to be around at all. Had no energy and did not care for anything. Was emaciated and had a constant pain around my heart until I thought I could not endure it. I felt as though I was liable to die any time. "Frequently I had nervous chills and the least excitement would drive sleep away, and any little noise would upset me terribly. I was gradually getting worse until finally, one day, it came over me and I asked myself what is the use of being sick all the time and buying medicine so that I could indulge myself in coffee? "So I thought I would see if I could quit drinking coffee, and got some Postum to help me quit. I made it strictly according to directions and I want to tell you that change was the greatest step in my life. It was easy to quit coffee because I had the Postum which I like better than I liked the old coffee. One by one the old troubles left, until now I am in splendid health, nerves steady, heart all right and the pain all gone. Never have any more nervous chills, don't take any medicine, can do all my housework and have done a great deal besides. "My sister-in-law, who visited me this summer, had been an invalid for some time, much as I was. I got her to quit coffee and drink Postum. She gained five pounds in three weeks, and I never saw such a change in anyone's health. "There's a reason. "Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

"Chicago AA" Portland Cement is not a new product

Some people seem to think that any kind of a soil of a sandy nature mixed with a small percentage of Portland Cement ought to make perfect concrete. Portland Cement has performed and will perform wonders but it will not make stone from dirt.

entitled "Cement, Sand and Gravel for Concrete"—tells how to select the materials for making concrete.

It has been on the market for fourteen years. The same raw materials, taken from the same quarries, have always been used in its manufacture, and the process supervised by practically the same men. Hence the unvarying quality of the Misdirected Books.

The post office sale of misdirected books, which formed no inconsiderable part of the $10,000 worth of miscellaneous articles disposed of by auction in last year's clearance sale of postal matter of unascertainable ownership, amounted to 1,222 packages.

Nearly every language spoken in our broad land was represented in the collection, which included, as a special curiosity, a Choctaw version of the Book of Psalms. In the entire lot Bibles and books on religious topics predominated.

If more than 1,000 books were misdirected, how many thousands, or perhaps hundreds of thousands, must have been carried by the mails! And how many times that number would be thus carried every year if we had, what many another country has, a thorough-going parcels post system.—Dial.

True Giving.

It's Easy to Peel Off All Your Freckles

(From American Home.)

The contrast between the freckles and the clear skin usually is so great that no bleach can be more than partially successful in obliterating the disfigurements. Ordinary mercurized wax is far better; it literally peels off the freckles. Get an ounce of it at the nearest drug store and tonight spread enough to completely cover your face; remove in the morning with warm water. Repeat daily until every freckle has disappeared.

Rough, blotchy, pimpled skin, also common at this season, may be entirely gotten rid of by this same method, without discomfort or inconvenience. The effort is decidedly worth while, the new complexion obtained being so clear, smooth and youthful. If bothered with wrinkles, after washing off the mercurized wax bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel.

WILL GIVE $500 TO SICK READERS OF THE TRIBUNE

Indiana Scientist Who Originated the Now Famous "Home Treatment" Offers Large Package Free to Sick and Ailing

In order that every reader of The Tribune who needs treatment may have an opportunity to test this celebrated medicine, the now famous Indiana scientist has come to the front with an offer to give absolutely free a large proof package to five hundred readers of this paper to prove the wonderful claims which have been made for it. In making this offer the scientist said: "I know that there are many people who have been suffering for years with some chronic disease and many of them have spent large sums of money seeking a cure. I know that these people hesitate about investing money in medicine because they have despaired of ever getting well. Thousands have told me that story and many thousands of the same people have told me afterwards that my treatment had cured them after doctors and everything else had failed. I want to show these despairing people that all the newspaper talk about my treatment is absolutely true. I want to prove to a limited number—no matter what the disease, no matter how long they may have suffered, no matter how blue and discouraged—that my treatment really and actually does accomplish the wonderful results that have been reported."

People who suffer from Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, Stomach Trouble, Liver or Bowel Disorders, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Coughs, Weak Lungs, Lumbago, Piles, Urinary Disorders, Female Weaknesses of any kind, the weak, worn out, broken-down and despondent will be delighted at the effect of a few doses. This wonderful treatment creates a fine appetite and helps the digestive organs to carry on their functions as they should. It strengthens the kidneys, too, and drives rheumatism poisons from the blood as if by magic. That is why people who try it become so enthusiastic. Any reader of The Tribune who will try this extraordinary medicine that has created so much excitement by its cures can obtain absolutely free a liberal treatment by simply filling in the coupon below or writing a letter describing their case in their own words, if they prefer, and mailing it today to James W. Kidd, Fort Wayne, Indiana. No money need be sent and no charge of any kind will be made. As this offer is limited, you should write at once, in order to be sure to receive your free treatment.

We Guarantee Every Rambler for Ten Thousand Miles

Subject to the conditions of our signed guarantee which we will give with each car.

Ten thousand miles! Think what it means!

Step into the Rambler in New York and journey across four states to Chicago. Take your bearings and strike due west across seven states to the Golden Gate.

Run down the Coast to Los Angeles. Turn back over the mountains and on through eight hundred miles of desert to El Paso. Then on to New Orleans and back, by way of Atlanta, through eight states to the city of New York.

Strike out again cross country for Chicago. Then drive your car straightway across the American continent to San Francisco. Yet you have not exhausted the ten thousand mile Rambler guarantee backed by a company of known stability.

We give this guarantee to prove to you our unbounded confidence in every single part that goes into every Rambler car.

The first Rambler Cross Country that left the factory made a three thousand mile test trip through nine states, over the mountains of Pennsylvania to New York, Albany, Boston and back to the factory.

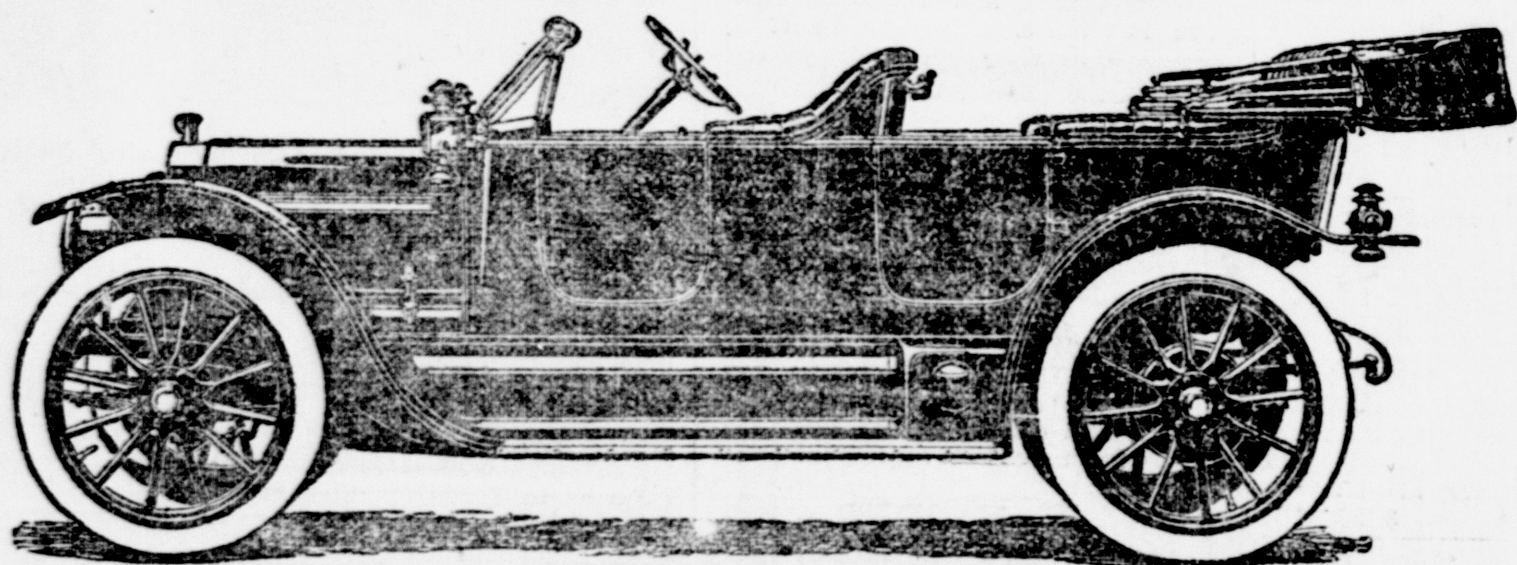

Since then the fame of the Cross Country has spread, and its service has extended to every state in the Union, to every province of Canada, to Mexico, to Australia, South America, Europe and the Orient.

Everywhere this Rambler has gone its performance has strengthened our confidence in its ability to fulfill this guarantee. That is why we do not hesitate to give it.

Eleven years of success in motor car building has so established the stability of this company in manufacturing and financial resources as to make definitely known the responsibility back of this guarantee.

Such a car with this guarantee, backed by such a company whose liberal policy is so widely known, are the reasons why you should have a Rambler.

Just sit down and write us a postal or send the coupon, asking for the catalog. It tells all about the Cross Country and the other 1912 Rambler models.

The Rambler Cross Country—$1650

GIANTS WELCOMED BY CROWD OF FANS

Muggsy's Men Return;
Chance's Warriors Lick
Indianapolis; Flood
Stops the Naps

NEW YORK, April 6.—A large crowd of baseball fans greeted the New York Nationals when they arrived today from their spring training trip in the south. The Giants and the Jersey City International leaguers will hook up in an exhibition game at the Polo grounds this afternoon.

Cubs Beat Indians
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 6.—Although there were a few cracks in the Cubs' defensive machine, Manager Chance today stated that considering the weather the team has had to contend with, he is perfectly satisfied with the work of his men and believes the Cubs will open the season in tip top form. The Indians were beaten yesterday 5 to 3. Ritchie pitched great ball but Smith, who succeeded him was touched up freely.

Floods Stop Naps
MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 6.—The Nap regulars were due here today for a Saturday and Sunday series with the locals, but flood conditions south along the Mississippi threatened to delay their arrival. The Yankees stopped at Vicksburg enroute north from New Orleans. The regulars defeated the Louisiana university 13 to 0 yesterday at Baton Rouge.

Sox Beat Wichita
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 6.—The Chicago Americans arrived here early today for a two game series. Excursions from all nearby towns have been arranged to bring in the fans for tomorrow's game when Ed Walsh is slated to appear on the mound here. The Sox ran away with the second game at Wichita yesterday 15 to 3. Ping Bodie pitched five hits.

Reds Start Exhibitions
CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 6.—The Cincinnati Reds today started a series of exhibition games with major league clubs. The Boston Americans will play here today and Sunday and the Detroit Tigers, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Magie Breaks Wrist
PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—Physicians after another careful examination of Sherwood Magie's fractured wrist today believed that the hard hitting fielder will be out of the game for at least a month.

Brooklyn at Wheeling WHEELING, W. Va., April 6.—The Brooklyn Nationals arrived here today. The team will play Wheeling this afternoon and then leave for Washington where two games will be played.

Brooklyn Releases Breen
MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 6.—Milwaukee baseball stock took a decided jump this morning with the announcement here that Jimmy Breen, second baseman and backstop for the Brewers, had been released by Manager Dahlen of the Brooklyn Nationals and will report to Manager Duffy at once. Breen was drafted by Dahlen at the close of the season.

NORTHERN LEAGUE MEETS
FARGO, N. D., April 6.—President McCuen of the Duluth baseball club Thursday night announced a meeting of the managers of all clubs in the Northern league, to be held at Duluth on April 6. The salary limit will be fixed at this meeting, and the schedule arranged. The Fargo team will begin spring practice at Red Wing, Minn., soon.

INDIANS WOULD PLAY OUTCASTS

Manager of Tomah Indians
Asks Elliott for Chance
at Locals; Will Sign
Chase

W. B. "Chief" Charles, manager of the Tomah Indian baseball team, wrote President Elliott yesterday for an exhibition game with the Outcasts in this city and the Indians will probably be played May 3 or 4 or during the week beginning with May 6.

Chief Charles will be remembered as the pitcher who played with the Green Bay team when that club was in the Wisconsin-Illinois league and he was known as one of the best twirlers in the circuit. He possessed an out drop which fooled the best of batters, with the result that he was one of the hardest pitchers in the league to hit. He is now pitching for the Tomah Indians so this assures the Outcasts of some good batting practice as they will have to do their best to beat him. The Indians have a good team this year so a good game is looked for when they meet the Outcasts.

The local club has sent a contract to Chief Chase's brother who wishes to sign up with the Outcasts. The Chief's brother is a good pitcher and a chief is to play with the Outcasts for the first time in the history of the local club.

President Elliott yesterday received a letter from Lefty Marsh of Chippewa Falls who wants to umpire in the Minny league. Marsh has played with the University of Minnesota team as well as with many fast semi-professional teams, and he has had a great deal of experience in umpiring. He may be signed as one of the Minny league umpiring staff.

JOHNSON FORGETS TO PAY UNCLE SAM

CHICAGO, April 6.—Jack Johnson and his "string of lawyers" were scheduled for a busy day today. The black pugilist failed yesterday to pay $9,600 over to Uncle Sam's sub-treasury here after promising officials of the department of justice that he would make full settlement in the alleged diamond smuggling case. Today he must either pay up or defy the government in court. This afternoon Jack meets Tom O'Rourke, relative to a fight in New York, by which he will make up the $9,600 diamond loss.

It seems strange how many Indian "chiefs" and how few plain "warriors" are in league baseball nowadays. Apparently a Red-skin becomes a chief as soon as he is able to play baseball for among the many chiefs now in the national game are Meyers of New York, Bender of the Athletics, La Roy of St. Paul and Chase of Rochester. Will Chief Chase's brother, whom the Outcasts have signed, also become a chief this year?

There's no way you can be a bigger fool to a man with a bad than to have a different one of your own.

BASEBALL STARTS AT NORMAL SCHOOL

White Sox Beat Reds in 15 Innings, 2 to 1; Track
Prospects Are Very Good

An enthusiastic meeting of track and field candidates was held yesterday noon at the normal school at which Coach Moore presided. Over thirty men were present and it looks as though the normal will have the strongest aggregation in track and field athletics in its history. Lewis Bankers of Richland Center was elected manager and he is already arranging meets with various schools and organizations. Coach Moore gave a heart to heart talk to the men on the value and methods of training for the different field and track events. Captain Bonneville is optimistic over the outlook and as there are several experienced men to form a nucleus, a strong team in that line of athletics is assured the pedagogues this season. Bonneville formerly held the high school record in the mile run and can be depended on to push his opponents at the finish. Holway and Ivers will go after the pole vault. Robinson, Keyes and Stevenson are experienced distance men and with Erickson, Jacobson and Bryan in the weights, that end will be well taken care of, while Krause equalled the high school high jump last year. Other promising candidates are Wolfe, Hatfield, Hitt, Morse, Roberts, Lawton, Glassbrenner, Bartels, Rolfe, Gore and Allen. There are many other men who will be in school next quarter and after the Easter vacation systematic work will be started. The track is rapidly drying and next week it will be scraped and rolled into shape and the field will also be put in the best of condition for the field events.

A triangular meet with the high school and Y. M. C. A. will no doubt be the first meet in which the team will take part and as all three teams will be in good condition by that time an interesting and close contest is anticipated by Captain Bonneville.

White Sox, 2; Reds, 1
In a game which took fifteen innings to decide and which ended in the close score of 2 to 1, the White Sox, led by Chet Allen, defeated the Reds under Frank Gore, Thursday afternoon in a practice game at League park. The normal baseball squad was divided into two teams by Coach Moore and the game which resulted was one of the most exciting ever played on the league diamond. A feature of the afternoon was the absence of many errors, there being scarcely a miscue made by either team during the entire game. Chet Allen hit the Reds down with only eight hits while Gore allowed only seven. The hits were so scattered, however, that few runs resulted. With the best squad in the history of the school from which to pick a team to represent it this season, Coach Moore will have to figure close on choosing the first team as the men on both sides played in mid-season form and each is trying hard for a position. Gore and Allen can be depended on to pitch good games and with Bartels and Young as other experienced men in that position, there will be no lack of good pitchers such as was experienced last year when Sloggy had to do all the twirling. The lineups for the two teams was as follows:

White Sox—Allen, p; Glassbrenner, c; Holmes, 1b; Fisher, 2b; Egelsberg, ss; Moore, 3b; Dahl, rf; Roberts, lf; Byers, cf.
Reds—Gore, p; Bartels, c; Jacobson, 1b; Captain Lawton, 2b; Rolfe, ss; Dougherty, 3b; Murphy, rf; Hatfield, lf; Morse, cf.

Umpire—Thomas McGlynn.

Prepare Schedule
The first game of the season will be with Sacred Heart college in two weeks, at Prairie du Chien. A series of games has also been arranged with the high school, Onalaska Aggies and with Galesville. Manager Robinson is preparing a heavy schedule which will include games with Platteville normal and the La Crosse league team and about ten good games will be played at home by the team. Baseball suits are expected soon and the squad will be arranged in the regulation uniform instead of the hybrid accoutrement at present in vogue.

CHICAGOAN INDEXES MEXICAN LAW CODE

CHICAGO, April 6.—The unique task of compiling an index to the laws of another country and in another than his native tongue has been completed for the lawyers of Mexico by a Chicago attorney, Robert J. Kerr, who speaks Spanish with the same facility as English. Curiously enough the three codes of law of the disturbed republic, which include in all 7,269 articles, never have been indexed.

BYRNS HEADS LEAGUE

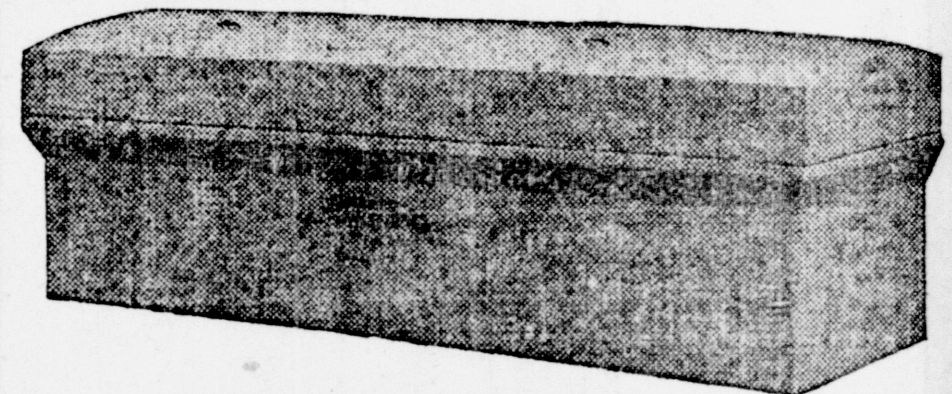

MENOMINEE, Mich., April 6.—The new baseball league which will include Menominee, Marinette, Escanaba and Gladstone will be known as the Upper Peninsula-Wisconsin league. J. E. Byrns, a prominent lumberman of Escanaba, has been elected president of the league.

HOPPE IN FORM

NEW YORK, April 6.—William Hoppe is not "going back." That was the decision of experts who watched him click off 400 points in three innings during a practice billiard game with Harry Cline of Philadelphia.

CEMENT AUTOMATIC SEALING

BURIAL VAULT

Automatic Sealing Burial Vault, with Lid in Place Showing
Its Beautiful Lines and Neat General Appearance.

The longer it remains in the ground the better it gets. Absolutely Water Proof, Vermin Proof and Burglar Proof. Graves with a Cement Vault in it can Never Settle. The wooden rough box, now in use, soon soaks full of water and decays. The steel vault soon corrodes and crumbles in. The jointed cement or brick vault can not be made water proof and are More Expensive than our Automatic Sealing Vault—re-enforced with steel.

Why put an expensive, beautiful casket in a wooden box to water soak and decay within a few months, when for a few dollars more you can place it in a Vault that will preserve it perfectly forever?

Ask your undertaker about the Automatic Sealing Vault, and have him demonstrate the Automatic Seal with Small Sample which he has. You will be well pleased with it and surprised at its low cost.

MILLER AND LITTLE TO WRESTLE AGAIN

A match between Walter Miller, champion St. Paul wrestler, and Jack Little, prominent wrestler of Milwaukee, is being planned for this city on April 19, by J. P. Moore who has promoted the former matches.

Mr. Moore intends to make this match the best of the season and as assurance of this fact he has stipulated that Miller and Little deposit $200 each with the newspapers of the city as a guarantee that they will appear as scheduled. Furthermore, he insists that each man be in the city four days before the match and that he remain here during those four days as proof that they will be present for the bout.

A telegram from A. M. Wood, Miller's manager, announced that the champion is now at Calumet, Mich., and that within a few days' time his shoulder will be all right when he will be in the best of condition. He announced that he was willing to post the $200 guarantee and to have Miller here four days before the match.

At the present time Little is at his home in Milwaukee and a letter from him is expected in the near future. The match will take place here two weeks from yesterday.

WIDEN SCOPE OF COIN TRUST PROBE

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Representative Henry (Dem., Texas), has prodded the house investigators of the "money trust" into galvanic action by broadening the scope of the inquiry. His resolution, which was adopted, gives the judiciary committee authority to make a separate "money trust" probe of its own. Henry said the new supplementary investigation is to be along broader lines than that of the banking committee.

COULON TO FIGHT

CHICAGO, April 6.—Johnny Coulon, the Logan Square bantam, is considering an offer from New York promoters for a bout with the winner of the bantam elimination contests being held here. The only definite clause of the offer is the one guaranteeing the champion $3,000. No time is set for the bout. It is believed Coulon will accept.
